FACT SHEET SINGAPORE

General Information

The Republic of Singapore is a Southeast Asian city-state off the southern tip of the Malay Peninsula. About 5.5 million people live in Singapore, of which 3.38 million are citizens, and many of them (74.1%) are Chinese.

Singapore is a global commerce and financial hub and is ranked as the easiest country to do business for ten consecutive years (2006 – 2016) according to the World Bank Group. Based on the Corruption Perceptions Index, Singapore is consistently one of the least corrupt countries in the world.

Singapore enjoys political stability, excellent infrastructure and with strong trade and investment, this is an ideal location for global businesses and your company benefits from:

- Singapore's network of over 50 comprehensive Double Taxation Avoidance Agreements.
- Singapore's many free trade agreements and the Investment Guarantee Agreements.

The legal system of Singapore is based on English common law.

Business Structure - Company

A company is a business entity registered under the Companies Act, Chapter 50. It has a legal personality i.e. it has rights to own properties, has perpetual succession and can sue or be sued in its own name.
